COMMUNITY INTERVENTION PROGRAM FOR YOUTH

Definition: This program is designed for youth and children who are involved in JIPS proceedings who are from ages 10 to 18. Youth/children in this program are uncontrollable teen's or children in need of protection and services who have placed in an out of home care setting i.e. foster home, treatment foster home, group home or a residential care center (RCC). The goal of this program is to assist children/ youth in transition from a highly structured setting back into their homes and community. It is anticipated that these services will preserve the integrity and improve the functioning of dysfunctional families. The intent of this project is.

- To reduce the recidivism rate
- To reunite families and maintain youth in the least restrictive placement
- To reduce length of placement stays
- Oneida County youth would be eligible for the Lincoln Hills School "Corrective Sanctions Program"
- To reduce out-of-home placement costs for youth

The aftercare social worker acts as a liaison between the institutional setting and the community aftercare program. An intensive aftercare plan is developed and to be implemented upon the youth's release from the institutional setting. Each youth shall receive a minimum of three face-to-face supervision contacts every week for the first 90 days after release and return to the county. The parents/caregivers will have at least one face-to-face contact per week and one phone contact per week. There will be at least one face-to-face contact per week with the school and/or employer.

The project staff will also concentrate on building independent living skills with aftercare youth.

Services may include but are not limited to: Case planning, monitoring and review.

They will also assist in coordination of services in the community such as AODA, school, mental health and identifying healthy recreational activities. Assist with barriers to accessing these services such as transportation.

Statutory Authority: 938.34(4n).

EARLY INTERVENTION PROGRAM

Definition: The Early Intervention Program implements a service team approach to provide intensive services to troubled youth and their families. These are youth that are just beginning their involvement in the youth justice or Social Service system. County social workers spend very little time with these youth as the more chronic disturbed youth demand so much staff time. We have contracted with private agencies in the community to provide early intervention services. The county social work staff and grant-funded staff will work as a team to provide more effective services to youth in an effort to divert them from further delinquency involvement. The goal is to provide intensive services to troubled youth in an effort to reduce their involvement in the youth justice system.

It has become apparent in the intake conference process that some youth have numerous issues other than the presenting referral. These issues include indicators for alcohol or other drug abuse, family dysfunction, school or truancy problems, mental health problems, and delinquent behavior patterns. It is our intent to target those youth with the inappropriate behavior and issues in any two other areas of concern for early intervention. These youth would be considered for Deferred Prosecution Agreements, Informal Agreements, or Consent Decrees and would meet the criteria for such an agreement.

The services of the grant social worker would be included in the Deferred Prosecution Agreement, Informal Agreements, or Consent Decrees by the assigned county staff.

It is our intent to provide intensive, supportive, and effective services to each youth and his/her family based on identified strengths and needs.

GOING FORWARD PROGRAM

Definition: The Going Forward program is designed to teach older youth independent living skills. These youth are typically high school aged and identified by the social worker as lacking independent living skills to live on their own post high school or lack knowledge in how to access post high school education opportunities. We have contracted with a private agency to provide this service. The county social worker and contracted staff will work together to identify need areas.

It has become clear in working with youth that some lack the basic knowledge and skills to open a bank account, understand how credit works or understand a lease. Parents may have mental health, substance abuse issues, or cognitive impairments that prevent them from teaching these skills to their children. A pre-test and post-test is administered to measure skill development.

The services of the grant should be included in the Deferred Prosecution Agreement, Informal Agreement, Consent Decree or Court order, or recommended by the youth's Coordinated Services Team.

scenarios likely to occur in real life or include testimonials from youth who have experienced or witnessed incidents of bullying. The elementary curriculum includes exciting characters, games, and role-playing opportunities.

Curriculum is available in K-2, 3rd-6th grade, and 7th through college. Program length typically occurs over 6 sessions.

Internet Safety Programs are evidence-based programs based on watching videos and followed-up with discussion and activities. Discussions include internet safety, sexting, and messaging.

Curriculum is recommended for 7th grade-college and over 2-3 classes. Recommended that this program be followed-up with the 6-week healthy dating relationships class.

Dating and Healthy Relationships This curriculum begins by examining how gender stereotypes and media affect true intimacy and connection. It examines the youth values and attitudes about sex and how communication, mutual respect and shared power are vital to trust and intimacy. Students learn to identify unhealthy relationships, warning signs, risky behavior, and sexual abuse versus sexual intimacy in a loving relationship. Students will then learn to identify healthy characteristics in a partner, learn to advocate for healthy relationships and identify resources to help them in the future.

Conducted over 6 weeks with 50-minute sessions once per week.

Truthoughts teaches positive decision making and builds strong character by focusing on identifying thought patterns that lead to positive or negative thinking. The client learns to internalize the principals by which rules are formed and make responsible life decisions. Truthoughts is based on the idea that a person may have strong academic intelligence or lifestyle intelligence but not necessarily both. The program focuses on aligning the two for ultimate character building.
